

Learning to Ask Questions

Dwight Eisenhower is a famous Kansan.

He grew up in Abilene, Kansas.
His nickname was Ike.

He was famous because he was an important army general. He later became president of the United States.

Many photographs were taken of Dwight Eisenhower. We can learn a lot about him by asking questions about the photographs.

Eisenhower Family, 1902

Question words start with:

Who?

Where?

Why?

What?

When?

How?

What are they doing in this photograph?

Answer: They are posing for a family portrait.

How many people are in the photograph?

Answer: 8

Where is Dwight Eisenhower?

Answer: He is the boy on the left.